STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE 13 TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT; v. FINDINGS AND ORDER ETHAN ANDREW EVANS TINDUKASIRI. 14 DATE: September 22, 2023 15 Defendant. TIME: 2:00 p.m. COURT: Hon. Barbara A. McAuliffe 16 17 This case is set for a preliminary hearing on September 22, 2023. The parties agree and stipulate 18 to continue the preliminary hearing until December 1, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. before the duty magistrate. 19 Defense counsel has continued to be engaged in discussions and further investigation, and needs 20 additional time to conclude that process. Additionally, the parties are engaged in discussions and 21 investigation of issues related to a possible pre-indictment resolution, exploring issues related to the 22 defendant's mental health, as well as consultation with or seeking consultation with experts. The 23 defense has provided the government with a mental health assessment and the government retained an 24 expert to help assess the case. The government is in consultation with its expert, and needs additional 25 time to further consult with relevant parties. There are complex factual and legal issues the parties are 26 exploring, and believe that additional time to conclude that process will be productive in moving the

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through defendant's counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

- 1. By previous order, this matter was set for preliminary hearing on September 22, 2023.
- 2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the preliminary hearing until December 1, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. and to exclude time between September 22, 2023, and December 1, 2023, under Local Code T4.
  - 3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:
  - a) The parties are discussing and conducting further investigation into preindictment matters, and need additional time to conclude.
  - b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with her client, conduct further investigation, provide time for the government to assess information defense provided, and further discuss charges with the government.
  - c) Counsel for defendant has received a report from an expert defense retained, and the parties need time to further discuss and evaluate that.
  - d) The parties are engaged in discussions and investigation of issues related to the defendant's mental health, as well as consultation with or seeking consultation with experts
  - e) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
    - f) The government does not object to the continuance.
  - g) Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c) and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the defendant is in custody," unless the defendant consents and there is a "showing of good cause". Here, the defendant consents and there is good cause as set forth herein.
    - h) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

- i) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the time period of September 22, 2023 to December 1, 2023, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C.§ 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy indictment/trial.
- 4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which an indictment must be filed and a trial must commence.
